Information on applications for grants

given to Research Fellows of the Institute for Advanced Studies on Science, Technology and Society, Graz-Austria (IAS-STTS), as a contribution towards subsistence costs during their stay at the IAS-STTS.

General

The IAS-STTS gives partial and full grants to Research Fellows who are not able to pay for their living expenses during their stay at the Institute. Grants amount to a maximum of EUR 940,- per month. Grant applications will only be considered if submitted along with a completed “Application for Appointment as Research Fellow or Visiting Scholar” (the blue application form).

Manfred-Heindler-grant

In addition to the grants provided by the IAS-STTS, applicants can also apply for the “Manfred-Heindler-grant”. This grant will be awarded to the best project investigating the increased use of renewable energies and a more efficient use of energy. Applicants who wish to apply for the “Manfred-Heindler-Grant” are recommended to check both of the respective boxes in this grant application form indicating that they:

wish to apply for a grant to be used as a contribution towards subsistence costs during my stay at the Institute for Advanced Studies on Science, Technology and Society (IAS-STTS).

In addition to my application for a IAS-STTS grant wish to apply for the “Manfred-Heindler-grant”.

Mode of payment

In principle, grants can be remitted only to an account at an Austrian bank. In Austria all income is subject to tax; this also applies to grants. The recipients of a grant are obliged to take sole responsibility for filing any tax return necessary for the amount received.
